

Gladys Mae Robinson

January 24, 1933 - November 3, 2020

On January 24, 1933, God sent Elisha and Emma Lou Smith an extraordinary and beautiful gift by the name of Gladys Mae Smith. Her life was greatly defined by her strong love of family, her faith, hard work, and a kindhearted spirit that extended to her church, a circle of close friends, and her work colleagues.

Gladys was a high school graduate from Booker T. Washington High School in Memphis, TN. She was also a graduate from Henderson Business College and Tennessee College of Applied Technology. She served 15 years at C.M.E. Publishing House and then retired from Methodist University Hospital after 11 years of service.

Gladys attended New Life Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Pastor John Howard. There she served as a choir member. She later attended Soul Winners Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Elder Paul F. Coleman and surviving Pastor Dave Rhodes. She served as an usher and on the Church Mothers Board at Soul Winners. In her final years of life, she was a member of Covenant Restoring Ministries under the leadership of Bishop Michael George.

Gladys is preceded by both of her parents, Cornelius Robinson and two of her children, Deloris J. Robinson and Carolyn A. Collier. Her love and legacy will live on as a testament of her life through three loving children, Donald R. Robinson, Sharon R. Robinson and Brenda J. Spears (Albert); five siblings, Ruby Louise Smith, Elisha Smith, Walter Smith, Mae Lee Smith and Eddie

Smith; a God-Daughter, Marilyn Jennings; thirteen grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren who passionately referred to her as Madea; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Gladys peacefully transitioned into everlasting life on November 3, 2020 in the comfort of her home and surrounded by her family.
