

Hannah Renee Richardson

October 14, 1958 - March 29, 2020

Hannah Renee Richardson entered this life on October 14, 1958 in Memphis, Tennessee to her loving parents, the late Wilson Richardson and Tessola Woodard. Hannah was the seventh of nine children and helped care with the rearing of her nieces and nephews. Hannah graduated in 1976 from Booker T. Washington High School and in 1979, she moved to Cleveland, Ohio and met Virgil King, to which they were blessed with two daughters, Cynethiel Vernetta King and Shequita Renee King. Hannah was blessed with two grandsons, Javion Elijah King and Jeremiah Isaiah King.

Hannah was encouraging, giving, happy, and she loved to laugh and make others laugh. Hannah was a classy lady, known as “Lady Nae,” and a great dresser who could really cook when she “got a spell” for it. If you needed anything, Hannah most likely had it in her bag to give you. Although stern at times, people who knew Hannah knew that they were loved. If she gave you a nickname, you knew you were special. To Hannah, every man was renamed “Main,” every female was renamed “Suzie,” but if she told you, “Chile!” you knew you were in trouble!

Hannah was a dedicated and diligent worker. She worked for many years for Toth Mold and Die Inc, Kids ‘R’ Us, and Ben Venue Pharmaceutical Labs of Cleveland, OH. In Hannah’s life, God was her main focus, and she took Him wherever she went! She enjoyed working because it was her ministry for the Kingdom of God. She had a special love for her coworkers at the Nike Corporation in Memphis, TN, where she professed her love for the Lord and “got her praise on” every chance she could get!

Hannah received Christ at a young age, under the ministry of Temple of Deliverance (Bishop G.E. Patterson) of Memphis, TN. Hannah was a faithful member who served under the Southeast Faith Temple Church (Bishop John Lewis), Light of Liberty Church (Bishop Melvin Warren) of Cleveland, Ohio, Matthew 6:33 (Pastor Benjamin Allen), and Word of Faith Christ Center (Dr. Jacqueline Crockett).

Hannah departed this side of life on March 29, 2020 and leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Cynethiel Vernetta King and Shequita Renee King, two grandsons: Javion Elijah King and Jeremiah Isaiah King of Cleveland, OH, four brothers: Ervie (Savannah) Woodard, Jr. of Collierville, TN, Tim L. (Betty) Woodard, Tommy L. Woodard, and Savage (Joyce) Woodard, four sisters: Florence Marks, Bernice Jewell, Rosena Woodard, Ida (Albert) Richardson of Memphis, TN, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

Hannah was a beautiful mother, daughter, sister, aunt, niece, and friend. She leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, forgiveness, and strong faith in Jesus Christ. She was a generous, loving spirit who will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
