

Jonathan Kyron Brown

October 22, 2000 - January 19, 2021

Jonathan Kyron Brown was born on October 22, 2000 in Memphis, TN to Earnest and Luciana Brown.

He accepted Christ at an early age with New Bethel Church & Outreach Ministries.

"Big CEO", as he was fondly called by his family and friends, was a person with a very big heart. Jonathan was a joyful and selfless young man who would do all that he could to ensure his parents, sisters, nieces, and nephews were always happy. Big CEO also had a love for music. After the passing of his older brother, Jonathan started to express his feelings through music (this is how he got the name Baby CEO and as he got older, he changed his name to Big CEO). He was a star within his own right. Most known for his most popular song F Da Oppz, he has been featured on tracks with Fredo Santana and worked alongside many rappers and producers, including Bandplay, Burchwood Tez, Moochie Grape, OJ da Juiceman, CEO Lil Kenny, Pooh Shiesty, and Ramya J.

He was predeceased by his brother Earnest Brown (CEO Bud) and his grandparents Earnest & Betty Bell. His memory will always be cherished by his son, Kyron Dior Brown; parents: Earnest & Luciana Brown; four sisters: Earnesha Brown, Deshunda Brown, Tanisha Brown, Talonda Brown; grandparents; Earnest & Johnette Brown; great grandparents: Lela Bell &

Boyd Beatty, Uncles: Earnest Bell and Derrick Brown; Aunts; Trease (Michael) Moss, Rochelle (Curtis) Jackson, Shandra Brown, Keisha Brown, Tara Brown; two nieces & six nephews, a special friend, Mariah Sanders and a host of family members and friends.
