

Lue Bertha Brown

June 9, 1942 - February 12, 2021

Lue Bertha Hill Brown...mother, grandmother, sister, friend, Christian, nurse was born on June 9, 1942 in Tipton County to the late Willie Green and Renzo Hill, Sr.. She attended Gailor High School in Mason, TN and graduated from Memphis Area Vocational School in Memphis, TN and later went on to be a certified nurse at LeBonheur Children's Hospital where she retired after 30 years of service.

Lue accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age at Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Mason, TN and later became a member of Koinonia Baptist Church in Memphis, TN.

Lue united with Fred Brown, Jr. and as a result of that union, the couple produced two sons, Marvin Dexter and Ennis Timothy Brown.

After a period of hospitalization, Lue became one of God's angels. On February 12, 2021, she accepted her most esteemed position graciously and will continue to be a guardian over her family and friends. Lue, also affectionately known as "Baby Sister", will be cherished by her son, Marvin Brown; her grandchildren, Candis(Marcus) Brown Wirt, Bryan Brown and Kevontis Brown; her great granddaughters, Myla Boddie and Karmyn Brown; her siblings, Cordelia Taylor, James(Lizzie) Hill, Renzo Hill, Jr., and Palmer "Fuzzy" Gooden; a host of other relatives and friends. Her son, Ennis Brown; grandsons, Dexter and Ryan Brown; her siblings, Clarence Hill, Anna Jean Hill, Ruby Scott, Wilbur Gooden, and Eddie Joann Washington all preceded her in transition.

“ I remember Mama Lue best when we went to church. So was always nodding in and out of sleep. Her bible was falling from her lap. It was so funny. She was the best mother-in-law ever! I was so sad when I heard of her passing. Lifting prayers to her family.
